Sean Reilly

Senior Vice President and Associate General Counsel

Sean Reilly is Senior Vice President and Associate General Counsel for The Clearing House. Mr. Reilly's principal responsibilities center on advising members of The Clearing House's senior business team on vital cybersecurity, intellectual property and technology law issues, including strategic acquisitions, industry-wide product development initiatives, and other important business transactions. Mr. Reilly also staffs various IP and technology committees, coordinating with top industry executives and senior intellectual property lawyers from the nation's banks on cutting-edge technology law issues and initiatives of concern to the financial services industry.

Before joining The Clearing House, Mr. Reilly spent five years at the intellectual property law firm of Fitzpatrick, Cella, Harper & Scinto, advising technology and pharmaceutical companies on all aspects of IP law. In addition, Mr. Reilly worked at the United States Patent and Trademark Office as a patent examiner, and also worked at Intel Corporation in their Mobile Platforms Group (MPG).

Mr. Reilly holds a B.S. in Computer Engineering from the University of Florida and a J.D. from Fordham University.
